

MCEE 2017 - Register Now!

26 and 27 April 2017
Place Bonaventure, Montreal

The biggest Canadian event for the HVACR, plumbing, electrical and lighting industries is coming to Montreal this spring. With thousands of new products, technologies and ideas, MCEE 2017 brings the entire industry together under one roof on April 26 and 27 at Place Bonaventure in Montreal. Visitors will have the opportunity to see displays from more than 400 exhibitors from Canada, the United States and around the globe.

Free registration before April 25

You can save $20 by registering before April 25 at www.mcee.ca. Want to avoid line-ups at the door? Register before March 31 and your badge will be mailed to you before the show. Register Now.

See what's new

More than 100 new products will be entered in MCEE's New Product Competition and you can see them all in the New Product Showcase. Energy efficiency, water efficiency and innovation will be showcased and celebrated. These are the new products, technologies and solutions that can help you grow your business, be ahead of your competition and make your company more profitable.

23 free seminars

Organizers have assembled a top-notch list of technical seminars and industry updates presented by an outstanding line-up of industry experts. All seminars are offered free to MCEE 2017 visitors and many will meet continuing education requirements. Most sessions are presented in French. Seating for all seminars is first come, first-reserved. Separate registration is not required. See the full program.

Industry icon Jacques Deschênes to speak at MCEE

Jacques Deschênes, Honourary Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of Deschênes Group Inc. will share his unique insights on succession planning at a special presentation on the morning of April 26 called "What do you want to become of your business when you leave it?" Separate registration for this session is not required; seating is first come, first-reserved. This session will be presented in French.

Take a tour around the show to win!

Every MCEE 2017 visitor will receive 4 ballots for prize draws – including the Grand Prize of a $1,500 gift card that can be used at any Fairmont hotel worldwide.

Wednesday, April 26
Thursday, April 27

MCEE 2017

10 am to 7 pm
10 am to 4 pm

www.mcee.ca